Acknowledgments

There are several persons who were most helpful in adding information for this book or were generous in spending time and effort on behalf of my wife and me. Lloyd A. Siewers, of Minnesota, President of the Butterfield Overland Mail Society, provided new material which was put to good use. Paul R. Thompson, Ranger-in-Charge of the Fort Bowie National Historic Site (Apache Pass), furnished insights that greatly enhanced our appreciation of that lovely, remote place, and Ranger Richard McCamant, of Guadalupe National Park, where the Butterfield Pinery station was located, first told me of the BOM Society. In addition to Jackie and John Means, whose hospitality is detailed in the story, we also thank Jim Morrow, manager of the Fort Chadbourne Ranch, and Cliff Teinert, manager of the Reynolds Long X Ranch. Cliff not only put up Jerrie and Fred Smith, Nancy and Bob Green and Judy and me for the night, he entertained us with voice and guitar. Don Koch, manager of the Kent Mercantile Co. that lonely (and welcome) oasis far out on Interstate 10, showed us the wagon and coach rebuilding project he and Cliff Teinert are undertaking there. Betty and Charlie Dean, at the Double V Ranch in New Mexico, made our modern Butterfield travelers welcome, fed us heartily and bedded us down beautifully. And Joe Peacock, of Bronte, steered Don Franks's report on "Head of Concho" my way. Our thanks to each and every one.
